

070219

From Objects to Place

The core conception of this design is a hollow framework cantilevered out from the base architecture. It is not a monument in strict sense, I hope to create a monumental place through this framework -- a delightful, impressive place!

I believe that this place will become a good complement to The Globus Theater, and promote good interaction, bring more crowds. Also, it will bring more interesting cultural or artistic events for the Novosibirsk!

